It seems that I must al-ways sing a Dix-ie song,
A - long the Swan-ee spreads the weep-ing wil-low tree,

Just a good old fashion-ed Southern song,
Swaying gent-ly in the Southern breeze,
Be-cause we all love a
A - bove the birds sing their

Dix - ie mel - o - dy, When I was young, my mam-my al - ways sang to me, sweetest mel - o - dies, When I get back I'll get right down up - on my knees,

And way down in my heart, I've al-ways had a part of D, I, X, I, E. —
And then I'll say a pray'r, Because I'll be right where I learned my A, B, C's. —

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It features a piano introduction in a moderate tempo, followed by a vocal line with piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a 'Vamp' section and dynamic markings like 'p' and 'f'. The vocal line consists of five staves of music with lyrics. The score is in a key with two flats and a 2/4 time signature.

CHORUS

I've got the Swan-ee riv-er flowing thru my veins, That's why I love those good old fashioned Dix- ie strains, And ev'-ry twig and tree a- long it's shore,

Brings back to me once more, Songs that my mammy sang to me, oh mel-o - dy I can hear the banjos playing night and day, And each re-frac- tion is in my brain to stay, Al- tho I left my heart with someone down in Dix- ie, I've got the Swanee riv- er flowing thru my veins I've got the veins.

EYES THAT SAY I LOVE YOU

By FRED FISHER

CHORUS

Eyes that are al-ways tell-ing lies, naught-y eyes,

p.f

Eyes that are blue or grey ————— What do they want to make those eyes at me for, at you for, Just to steal your heart a - way, —————
