They'll Be Mighty Proud In Dixie Of Their Old Black Joe

By HARRY CARROLL

Till ready The oth - er I proud-ly day I chanced to roam — Be-side an old log cab-in home, — I saw an a - ged dar - ky took him by the hand, — I said: "Your sen-ti-ment is grand, — But don't you think the folks will dressed in kha-ki 'Bout to 'cross the foam, — I said, "Old man why must you go, — Your head of kind o' miss old Joe from Dix-ie-land?" — I saw a tear-drop in his eye, — And as he hair is white as snow," — He said: "I'm not ob-liged to, son - ny, — But I want this world to know: — waved a fond good-bye — He said: "My Un-cle Sam-my's call - in', — And for him I'll live or die. —

CHORUS

I'm a - com-in' — I'm a - com-in' — And I'm might-y proud to go, — 'Cause I seem to hear the bu-gles call-in' "Come on old Black Joe"— I've got the same old hap - py ban - jo, And the same old trust-y gun, ——— And they're the same old weap-ons that I used In the days of six-ty-one

I'll swim a-cross that old Rhine riv - er — And when I get there I won't leave no rind — I know, ——— I'll give the whole world lib - er - ty, ——— Just like Lin-coln did for me, — Then they'll be dog-gone proud in Dix - ie Of their Old Black Joe — I'm a - Joe. —
