THERE'S A LAND.

THERE'S a land, a dear land, where the rights of the free,
Though firm as the earth, are as wide as the sea;
Where the primroses bloom, and the nightingales sing,
And the honest poor man is as good as a king.

Show'ry! Flow'ry!

Cheerful! Tearful!

England, wave guarded, and green to the shore!

West land! Best land!

Thy land! My land!

Glory be with her, and peace evermore.

There's a land a dear land, where our vigour of soul
Is fed by the tempests that blow from the Pole;
Where a slave cannot breathe, or invader presume
To ask for more earth than will cover his tomb.

Sea land! Free land!

Fairest! Rarest!

Home of brave men and the girls they adore!

Fearless! Peerless!

Thy land! My land!

Glory be with her and peace evermore.

CHARLES MACKAY.

ADDITIONAL VERSE.

*There's a Realm, a vast Realm, that from East unto West,
Through the wide spreading world, is the noblest and best;
Where the people love Peace, but, at sound of the drum,
A myriad of soldiers and heroes become.*

Purest! Surest!

Royal! Loyal!

This year and all years we'll sing and we'll pray:-

Glorious! Victorious!

Thy Realm! My Realm!

God bless our Empire both now and for aye!
