FROM THE MUSIC-DRAMA "GOLD"

HUMPHREY J. STEWART

"The Music-Drama "Gold" was produced by the Bohemian Club of San Francisco in the season of 1910, as one of their annual Silver Prices. The book was written by Frederick S. Harris, and the music composed by H. J. Stewart. The story is based upon the adventures of a band of Spanish explorers in the early days of the Spanish settlements of California. The military music accompanies the entry of the victorious party, led by a company of soldiers."
