LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
COPYRIGHT
No. 13060
CITY

JAN 12 1900

THREE SONGS
AND A BALLAD.
BY
G. R. Paine.

My land of dreams	Song for Soprano	4
Cradle Song	" " " "	4
Parted	Song for Basso	4
Deserted	Ballad for Contralto	6

E. C. Spurr, Engr.

PORTLAND, ME.
COLLINS & BUXTON
Congress St.
Copyright 1876 by Collins & Buxton.

To Mrs. G. M. CUMMINGS.

DESERTED.

Authorship of words disputed. Music by G. R. PAINE.

Copyright, 1874, by Collins & Buxton.

by: And the round red Sun went down in the west, When my love's lov - ing lips to my lips were pres't, Un - der the eve - ning con dolore.
sky. Now weep - ing a - lone by the riv - er I stray; For my mp
mp
love has left me man-y a day: Left me to droop and die.

pp cres. molto
8
Sentimento.
As the riv-er flowed then, the riv-er flows still, In rip-ple and foam and
mf
f molto sostenuto.
più piano.
spray: On by the church, and 'round by the hill, And un-der the sluice, by the old burnt mill, And out to the fad-ing
p
p

mestoso.
day. But I love it no more, for de - light grows cold When the song is
p
p OSSIA.
sung and the tale is told. And the heart is giv-en a - way.
giv-en a - way.
tr
8
pp cres - - cen - do.
molto passione.
f
Oh! riv-er run far, oh riv-er run fast! Oh! weeds float
f

on to the sea: For the sun has gone down on my beau-ti - ful past, And the hopes that like bread on the wa - ters I cast, Have drift - ed a - way like con moto.
thee. So the dream it is fled, and the day it is done, But my lips still
mp
mur-mur the name of one who will nev-er come back to me.

OSSIA. molto passione.

f

Oh, riv-er run far! oh, riv-er run fast! Oh, weeds float on to the sea! For the sun has gone down on my beau-ti-ful past, And the hopes that like bread on the wa - ters I con agitato.

cast, Has drift-ed a - way like thee. So the dream it is fled, and the day it is

mp

done, But my lips still mur-mur the name of one Who will nev-er come back to me.

Liverpool Bros. Oliv. & Front. Castle.